

CROSSWORD IN TWO PARTS

In each clue, the missing word is the answer.

Across

Down

Question:

The crossword is divided into two parts. Why? (If you read aloud the words in each part, you can hear the reason.)

Which Medicine?

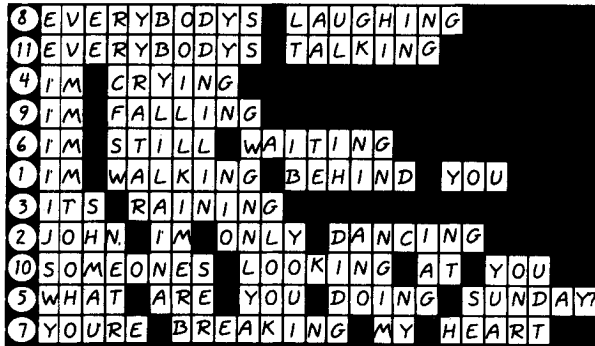

Page 20

- A has got a HEADACHE, so Number 4 is the best medicine.
- B has got a COLD, so Number 6 is the best medicine.
- C has got a TOOTHACHE, so Number 1 is the best medicine.
- D has got a STOMACHACHE, so Number 3 is the best medicine.
- E has got a COUGH, so Number 5 is the best medicine.
- F has got a BACKACHE, so Number 2 is the best medicine.

Remember: it is also possible to say 'toothache', 'stomachache' and 'backache' without 'a' ('I've got toothache', etc.).

Song Titles

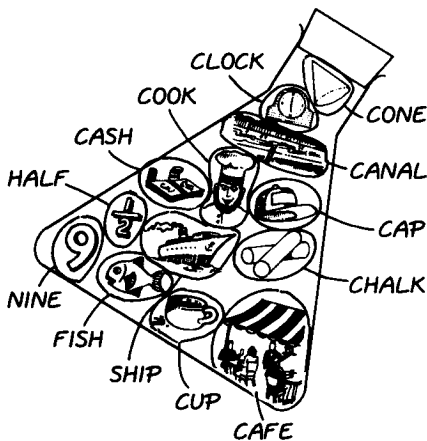

Page 21

Remember: the -ing form of 'dance' is 'dancing' (not 'danceing').
The song about the future is 'What are you doing Sunday?' (You can also say 'What are you doing on Sunday?')

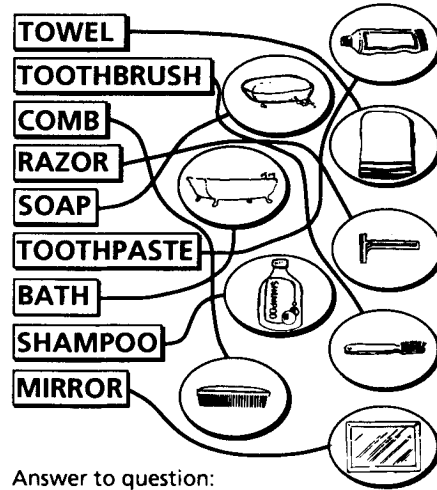

A Chemical Code

Page 22

Bottom Half Only

Page 23

Answer to question:

BATHROOM

Crossword in Two Parts

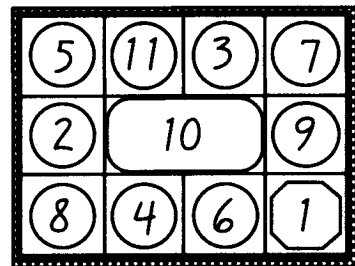

Page 24

All the words include the letters TH. In the first part of the crossword, the pronunciation is 'soft', /θ/; in the second part of the crossword, the pronunciation is 'hard', /ð/.

Road Signs

Page 25

Eye Test

Page 26

