Natasha: I come from a very small family, and my parents are from Guyana. In Guyana, Christmas is a big thing. Lights, presents food, food, and more food.

Kayleigh: Traditional Christmas for me is a huge dinner, lots of friends and family, a fair amount of alcohol, and presents.

Kamilla: So, we do a duck for Christmas, and we have friends around, or we go and see friends, and we also dance around the Christmas tree because that's a Danish tradition.

Patrick: OK, so usually it starts with breakfast about 11ish and smoked salmon, scrambled eggs and coffee. After that, a bit of a break, some present opening and then a long spread out Christmas lunch from 3 till 6 and then the drinking starts.

Lydia: We normally have a goose, a roast goose and chocolate pudding, and all the trimmings.

Natasha: I don't like the fact that Christmas is started so early. I mean, in October, you go into the shops, and Christmas is in your face.
