TIME

15 to 25 minutes

PROCEDURE

- 1 Write the word predictions on the board.
- 2 Check students understand and can pronounce it.
- 3 Below it write: the weather tomorrow.
- 4 Elicit predictions about the weather:
I think it'll... It won't...
- 5 Tell the students they are going to make predictions about their company and their country.
- 6 Give out the worksheet.
- 7 Tell the students to write their names in the left-hand box and the name of their company and their country in the centre box.
- 8 Explain that they should now write a prediction about their company or country in the right-hand box. Circulate and monitor, correcting the sentences.
- 9 When the students have finished, ask them to tell other students in the class their predictions. The students should write down the name of the students they speak to, the name of their company or country, and the prediction made by that student. The students can comment on each other's predictions if they wish.
- 10 When they have finished, reconvene the class and ask some students to report on the predictions they collected.
