Subject: Festivals

Nevruz

Nevruz is a festival from Turkey. It is celebrated at the start of spring. The name comes from two Persian words meaning 'new' and 'day'. Nevruz is considered the start of the New Year by many Turks and Iranians.

Activity 1

- Read the introductory text out loud. If possible show pupils Turkey on a map.
- Point to the pictures and ask What can you see? Pupils name things in the pictures.
- They then colour the pictures.

Activity 2

- Pupils match the sentence halves.
- Check their answers by asking volunteers to read out complete sentences.

Answers: 1-We clean the house; 2-We share special food; 3-We get presents; 4-We paint eggs; 5-We wear new clothes; 6-Men jump over fires

Activity 3

- Pupils write the sentences from activity 2 under the appropriate picture in activity 1.
- Answers: We clean the house; We paint eggs; We wear new clothes; We share special food; We get presents; Men jump over fires

Class activity

- Pupils paint and decorate hard-boiled eggs.
