

Air travel English challenge Worksheet 6: Active and passive voice

You	You	Your
(park) your car.	(put) your luggage on a trolley.	hand luggage (x-ray).
You	You	You
(hand) your passport and ticket to the check-in clerk.	(put) your luggage on the belt to be weighed.	(answer) questions about who packed your luggage and etc.
You	You	You
(give) your boarding pass.	Your passport and boarding pass (check).	(put) your mobile phone etc into a small tray.
You	You	Boarding
(walk) through a metal detector.	(buy) duty free goods.	(announce) and you go to your gate.
You	You	You
(show) your boarding pass again.	(put) your hand luggage in the overhead locker.	(fasten) your seatbelt.
The plane	You	You
(take off).	(listen) to the safety announcement.	(give) a drink.
You	You	The plane
(give) a meal.	(fill in) an immigration form.	(land).
You	Your visa	You
(ask) about the length of your stay, purpose of your visit, etc.	(stamp).	(take) your luggage off the conveyor belt.
You	You	You
(walk) through the green channel.	(ask) if you have anything to declare.	(see) someone holding a sign with your name.

Useful language: Is this sentence passive or active?; Who is doing the action?; What is the past participle of this verb?