

The editorial page: Tasks

- 1 Look at the titles of three magazines. What kind of magazines are they?
 - Chef's Delight
 - On the Road
 - Far and Away
- 2 Read the phrases below and put the title of the magazine at the top of the columns.

1	2	3
on how to avoid getting sunburnt	if you should enter our BMW competition	to vegetarians who want to make a romantic meal
the youngest woman to climb Mount Everest	a man who's driving around the world	if you're eating too much sugar
if you're going to have a holiday romance!	how safe a driver you are	the winner of our Cook of the Year award
if you know which beaches the rich and famous go to	where he is now	if you need to buy a bottle of champagne
how she felt at the top	on how to change a tyre	what his favourite meal is

- 3 Read the example of an editorial page – who are Maya and Simon?
- 4 What should go in gaps 1 and 2? Fill in the gaps.
- 5 Now choose phrases from one column from the table above and put them in gaps 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7. The phrases are not in the correct order. Read and decide where they should go.
- 6 What should go in gaps 8 and 9?
- 7 Now do the editorial for your One World Magazine using the example to help you. Don't forget to draw your picture, add your name and sign the editorial!

Editorial

Belinda Burton
Editor

Welcome to this month's edition of 1 _____ magazine.

This month we have lots of interesting news,
reports as well as 2 _____.

On page 3 Maya meets 3 _____ and finds out 4 _____.

As always we have received lots of letters for our problem page. This month Simon offers help and advice
5 _____.

Many of you like to know what the future holds.
Read our horoscopes and decide
6 _____.

And finally, try our quiz and find out 7 _____.

Until next month enjoy 8 _____!

9 _____

- One World Magazine -

Editorial

Editor

- One World Magazine -

