

Pre-Intermediate – Try New Things

A. You often visit your grandparents at the weekend. You're usually happy because they let you watch TV and play video games all the time. Your parents told you to stop doing that and spend time with your grandparents instead. Think of some ideas for new things that you can do with your grandparents.	B. Your class has a class party at the end of the year. It's always the same: the teacher orders some pizza, everyone brings board games to class, and you play until the end of the day. You want to do something different this year. Think of some new ideas for this year's class party.	C. Your family always goes to the same place on holiday. You always stay in the same hotel, and you do the same things. You even see the same people every year! You have talked to your siblings and decided to suggest something new to your parents for the next family holiday. Think of some ideas for a new holiday for your family.

Reflection Point

It's easier (but sometimes boring) to do the same things all the time. Be open to trying new things. You can learn something new, make friends, and have more fun!
